BOOKS OF THE WEEK.

Longer about Appleton's booklets during the last two months of the war must have struck with the appearance of a few specimens of Confe...

The fourth volume of D'Abigne's "History of the Reformation in the Time of Calvin" has been reprinted by Robert Carter & Brothers. Nearly half of it is devoted to the religious movement in England...

D. Appleton & Co. have published a neat little edition of Dr. E. M. Goulburn's lectures on "The Office of the Holy Communion in the Book of Common Prayer," especially adapted by the author himself to the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this country...

"The Omnipotence of Loving Kindness" is the title of an interesting little book just published by Robert Carter & Brothers. It is a narrative of the devoted and successful labors of a lady among the alien women of Glasgow...

Tehnor & Fields have added to their blue-and-gold series "The Poems of Thomas Kibble Hervey," edited by his widow. Mr. Hervey was one of the most popular of the minor English poets...

T. B. Peterson & Brothers have reprinted an English novel, a few years old, entitled "Out of the Depths; the Story of a Woman's Life." The subject is sufficiently well indicated by the title...

M. Dooley has just published "Behind the Scenes; or, Southern Morals during the War."

James Miller has just published "A Sketch of Straggling Life," by Florence Johnson. "Tigetes; or, Biographical Sketches," by Jessie Bayly Parker. "Essays on Women's Work," by the Higher Education of Women, by Emily Davies...

Hurd & Houghton are preparing for the holidays "Christmas in England," from Irving's "Sketch Book," printed in 6 to form and illustrated; and "A Friend in Need," by F. Hood, illustrated. They have also in press Lamartine's "Floridalia."

The second volume of Mr. Greeley's "American Conflict," which completes the work, has just been issued, and is now for sale by O. D. Case & Co., Hartford, Conn., and by agents throughout the country.

Messrs. Ticknor & Fields have purchased of Little, Brown & Co. the stereotype plates and the entire stock of the popular and valuable series of "British Poets" heretofore published by the latter house...

"SUNNY SIDE SERIES, NO. 1." THE FIRST OF THE "SUNNY SIDE BOOKS," by H. W. Beecher. "A well told story of the early days of New York." A historical and popular volume to all lovers of pleasing fiction.

"READY THIS MORNING—THE BODY POLITIC." A BOOK FOR AMERICANS—by Prof. W. B. Ewald. "A book for many a day, treating of NATIONAL GEOGRAPHY, NATIONAL ECONOMY, NATIONAL POLITICS, NATIONAL HISTORY, NATIONAL LITERATURE, NATIONAL SCIENCE, NATIONAL ARTS, NATIONAL INDUSTRIES, NATIONAL COMMERCE, NATIONAL DEFENSE, NATIONAL EDUCATION, NATIONAL RELIGION, NATIONAL MORALS, NATIONAL CHARACTER, NATIONAL PROGRESS, NATIONAL FUTURE."

"NEW-YORK MERCHANTS" who wish to communicate with the traders of Central Illinois, and who wish to be kept posted on the latest news of the West, will find in the "DAILY STAR" the best and most reliable source of information. It is published in the city of Chicago, and is sent to all parts of the West by express or by mail.

"FINE ARTS." Now that the cholera seems to have left us, and that there is no danger of adding to anybody's excitement on the subject, we venture to express our surprise that during the last few days of the epidemic, a number of artists should have been so busy painting pictures of the cholera-stricken, and of the scenes of death and desolation which were everywhere to be seen.
